

PATH THROUGH MARITIME HISTORY: LIGHTHOUSES & LIFE-SAVING

“Nothing indicates the liberality, prosperity and intelligence of a nation more clearly than the facilities which it affords for the safe approach of the mariner to its shores.”

Report of the United States Lighthouse Board, 1868

Explore 70 of New York State's unique lighthouses in one place!

The "Path Through Maritime History: Lighthouses & Life-Saving" exhibit was created by New York Sea Grant, sponsored by Great Lakes Seaway Trail, Inc., and designed by the H. Lee White Maritime Museum at Oswego for the Great New York State Fair 2018

